

As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins, <sup>2</sup> in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient. <sup>3</sup> All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our flesh<sup>[a]</sup> and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature deserving of wrath. <sup>4</sup> But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, <sup>5</sup> made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions – it is by grace you have been saved. Ephesians 2:1-5

I have but one passion: it is He, it is He alone ... henceforth that country shall be my home where I can be most used in winning souls for Christ.

Count Zinzendorf, leader of the Moravian Church

Being intentionally missional, either as individuals or as church communities, has become a massive source of angst and effort rather than a joy and privilege of sharing Jesus with others.

... we did not follow cleverly devised stories when we told you about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in power, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

2 Peter 1:16

If you want to change a society you have to tell an alternative story.

Philosopher Ivan Illich

The Gospel is a truth widely held but a truth greatly reduced. It is a truth that has been flattened, trivialised and rendered inane.

Walter Brueggemann

5. To strive to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth

We are already seeing a church that appears to be more confident in speaking about issues of justice, climate change, politics and economics than it does about Jesus.
