. . . many families knowing and loving the truth, and a constant succession of visitors . . . to whom, if God blesses my ministry, the good seed may thus be carried in all directions, and a harvest gathered from places I have never seen and am never likely to visit. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, be stirred up to praise and magnify His holy name.

you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:5

6

Then Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD had given ability and who was willing to come and do the work. They received from Moses all the offerings the Israelites had brought to carry out the work of constructing the sanctuary. And the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning. So all the skilled workers who were doing all the work on the sanctuary left what they were doing and said to Moses, “The people are bringing more than enough for doing the work the LORD commanded to be done.” Then Moses gave an order and they sent this word throughout the camp: “No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary.” And so the people were restrained from bringing more, because what they already had was more than enough to do all the work.

Our generosity will enable our church to grow in its mission of inviting everyone to follow Jesus - serving our community and city, discipling the next generation, reaching beyond our walls with the gospel and seeing heavenly transformation in Bristol and beyond.

The Invitation

Everyone who is willing gets to play a part 14

I'm already giving elsewhere, should I also give to my local church?

I'm confident of what
God is saying.

What about the cost of all the overheads?

I'm unsure what God is saying.

The Process

I don't have much money.

I don't feel part of the family.

I'm already giving my time,
do I need to give money?

There are lots of us, I'll leave the giving to others.
