No humble or poor person, no tradesman or mechanic, found access there, to mingle his vulgar devotions with the aristocratic aspirations of the painted and perfumed 'miserable sinners' who, in flounce and furbelow, conspicuously occupied the chief places of the synagogue.'

Bristol Gazette - 12 October 1844

"Many families knowing and loving the truth, and a constant succession of visitors and invalids from all parts of the kingdom - some seeking health, some seeking pleasure to whom, if God blesses my ministry, the good seed may thus be carried in all directions , and a harvest gathered from places I have never seen, and am never likely to visit."

Revd. James Marshall 1847-1855

*"Remain in me, as I also remain in you.
No branch can bear fruit by itself – it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me."*

John 15v4
