THERE IS MORE A day of worship, prayer and teaching for the whole church family. On Saturday 28th September we are gathering for the day to seek God together for more. The day will include a morning session with some provision for our children. We will have lunch together and an afternoon of activities including games and prayer seminars. We will finish the day with an evening gathering.

PRESS RED We have an amazing event coming up in the autumn on Saturday 5th October. Press Red conference will be a day and evening event informing people about modern slavery and violence against women and girls. It will be a day of inspiring and encouraging individuals, and churches to become beacons of hope, with challenging talks, as well a range of creative art performances. Tickets are available on Eventbrite, or through our website. If you would like to get involved in helping on the day, please contact Helena in the Church office. So remember to save the date Saturday 5th October. Great news, our opening speaker is Mayor Marvin Rees!

Welcome

Jacqueline Faul and the BISC TEAM are gearing up for the annual influx of international student to all the universities and colleges in Bristol. There are great opportunities to bless new students via this link <http://bisc.org.uk/index.php/coming-to-bristol/the-welcome/the-welcome-2019-volunteer-form> . Please pray for this huge task to be filled with joy and service when driving students, helping a head chef to cook a meal, helping on a welcome desk or offering emergency accommodation for a night or two. Follow the link, or for more information please contact the BISC office on bisc@bisc.org.uk or 0117 915 9826.
