	ELECTIONS
Lay Members of the Standing Committee	The Standing Committee is the only sub-committee of the PCC required by church law and operates as the principle executive arm of the PCC. Its function is to advance the work of the PCC between meetings subject to specific guidelines agreed by the PCC in November 2013. The other members suggested for the Standing Committee are: Chris Shaddick, Sam Pictor, and Hannah Rodgers. This will be from one year from the APCM (May 2026). The group agreed that it would be better for others to have the opportunity to step into the role, rather than the current Standing Committee choosing the new members. Mark Parsons will share communications on this and people can register their interest accordingly. The matter will be reviewed again at the next PCC meeting.
Election of PCC Officers	Claire Harman has been a co-opted member of the PCC for the last 12 months, standing as the Secretary. Claire has been elected onto the PCC for the coming year and was unanimously voted in to continue in the role. Currently there is no Treasurer of the PCC – however Sam Pictor is representing the Finance Team on the PCC. There is no urgent need for the position, given the strength of the Finance Team as a group. Electoral Roll Officer – all were in favour of Mark Parsons continuing to serve in this role.
